

QA803 James Hardiman Library Customer Charter

The Library proactively supports and enhances the learning, teaching and research activities of the University. The Library acts as a catalyst for your success as NUI Galway's hub for scholarly information discovery, sharing and publication.

This charter outlines what you can expect from the Library and what you can do to help us deliver the best service possible to you.

Our commitment to you is to:

- Ensure your needs are at the centre of Library services, collections and resources
- Provide a friendly, courteous, and respectful service at all times
- Provide a safe, welcoming, and accessible space which is conducive to study, teaching and research
- Provide a learning environment that values diversity and promotes equality of access
- Respect your privacy at all times and comply with Data Protection Legislation
- Meet our commitments under the Official Languages Act 2003 / Acht na dTeangach Oifigiúla 2003
- Actively seek and listen to your feedback - collaborating with you to enhance and improve the service continually

To help us achieve this we ask you to:

- Be considerate of your fellow users and to treat library staff with respect and courtesy
- Be respectful of the Library buildings, collections and resources
- Familiarise yourself with and adhere to Library rules and regulations at all times
- Let us know when something goes wrong so that we can endeavour to remedy the situation in a timely manner
- Give feedback, comments and suggestions to improve our services, collections and resources